FORT WORTH ART

DEALERS ASSOCIATION

FWADA is a unique arts organization in a unique American place. Few cities of Fort Worth's size are privileged to command such a wealth of major art museums, and fewer still have such a vital community spirit. What truly sets Fort Worth apart, however, is the vigorous, longstanding, clearly defined cooperation between the museums, the university art galleries, the non-profit exhibition spaces, and the art dealers, all of which are full working members of FWADA. To fulfill its stated mission to stimulate interest in the visual arts through educational programs, art scholarships, and art competitions, FWADA organizes, funds, and hosts exhibitions of noteworthy art. It sponsors the Fall Gallery Night for members and friends, as well as Spring Gallery Night.

All these attainments have created a stable environment that produces a steady stream of top-notch talent, including major local artists who exhibit their work nationally and internationally. Newcomers are frequently dazzled by the quality of work being created in every medium and style. Their passion reinvigorates Fort Worth patrons who have become habituated to the riches that surround them, reminding them anew that the most authentic cultural connection they can make is the one that affords direct communication with the artists who interpret and illuminate the life experience they share through common background and interests. Although the city is justly recognized for its cosmopolitan worldview, it is the local artists and their devoted collectors who are the lifeblood of the Fort Worth art market.

The members of the Fort Worth Art Dealers Association are pledged to the maintenance of a high standard of ethical conduct and professional integrity, these businesses furnish a model that gallery associations in other cities might do well to emulate. FWADA is to be commended for its important role as a contributor to the cultural and esthetic richness of Fort Worth. – Suzanne Deats

The works of Pedro Escamilla highlight his view of growing up in south Fort Worth and his love of the outdoors. He also explores deeper meanings of nature and humanity through abstracts and his use of prismacolor. Although he has worked as a graphic designer for three decades, he shows his mastery and skill in works of acrylic, pastels, watercolors and pencil. His depictions force the viewer to see how people interact with nature, animals, inanimate objects and, also, with each other.

Georgia O'Keeffe and the Far Away: Nature and Image.

This groundbreaking exhibition tells the story of the well known artist, Georgia O'Keeffe, and the inspiration that derives from her surroundings in the harsh terrain of Northern New Mexico- a place with which her reputation is inextricably linked. Works of art created as a result of her inspiration from remote locations, which most notably included the White Place and the Black Place, her camping gear (which has never previously been exhibited), and photographs of her in the desert will be the basis of this exhibit.

"Outside Influences: Mike Noland & Fred Stonehouse" curated by Marilyn Jolly

The work of outsider or self-taught artists has long fascinated and influenced the two artists featured in this exhibition. Mike Noland (Woodstock, IL) and Fred Stonehouse (Madison, WI) have befriended outsider artists and collected their work for most of their artistic careers. Their collections include artists such as Martin Ramirez and Popeye Reed and everything from tattoos to stone sculptures. This exhibition pairs the paintings of Noland and Stonehouse with pieces from their outsider art collections that reflect their influence on these artists' work. The exhibition runs March 22 – April 24, 2010.
